

Table des matières – Inhoud – Table of Contents

DOSSIER – SPECIAL ISSUE

ARCTIC AND ANTARCTIC REGIONS: NEW CHALLENGES FOR OCEAN GOVERNANCE

Erik FRANCKX & Philippe GAUTIER (eds)

FRANCKX, E. & GAUTIER, Ph.	Introduction to the special issue on “Arctic and antarctic regions: new challenges for ocean governance” . . .	333
ROELANTS DE STAPPERS, W. HASEBE, M.	Welcoming words	339
ZOU, K.	New developments and challenges in Arctic navigation and the Polar Code	342
CHIRCOP, A.	Implementing the Polar Code in the Antarctic waters: progress, problems, and prospects	360
BOBROVA, Y., KAPUSTIN, A. & VASILYEV, V. GAUTIER, Ph.	Canada and the Polar Code: balancing unilateralism and multilateralism in the regulation of arctic shipping	380
FRANCKX, E.	The Northern Sea Route: national legal regime and the Polar Code	405
VILLAMIZAR LAMUS, F. MARTINSEN, H.	New developments with respect to fisheries in the Antarctic	419
BORGIA, F.	New developments with respect to fisheries in the Arctic	442
DAVID, E. DE VAUCLE-ROY, A.	Piracy and whaling in Antarctica	483
VAN DER MENS-BRUGGHE, Y.	Some remarks on the application of “Antarctic International Law” to tourist and non-governmental activities in antarctica	504
	Sustainable tourism development in Arctic region: a risky game.	526
	The law applicable to the Princess Elisabeth Station	543
	The exercise of jurisdiction in Antarctica: a comparative analysis from the perspective of Belgium, France and The United Kingdom	548
	Conclusions	581

ÉTUDES – STUDIES – STUDIES

LISMONDE, M.	Étude critique du manuel de Tallinn sur la participation directe aux hostilités: du partage d’informations militaires sur les réseaux sociaux	583
BRAUN, J. & LAURENT, F.	La lutte contre le terrorisme par la censure des « contenus à caractère terroriste »: une ingérence justifiée au droit à la liberté d’expression ?	616

COMPTES RENDUS – BOEKBESPREKINGEN – BOOK REVIEWS